

Symposium on New Directions in the History of Crime

Thursday 4 – Friday 5 September 2008
Northern Terrace, Civic Quarter
Leeds Metropolitan University

The Symposium has been organised by a newly formed network of British Crime Historians working across universities in the United Kingdom.

The programme will include panels relating to the following themes:

- Race and Empire
- Violence
- Social Policy
- History and Criminology
- Micro-history
- Criminal Justice History

Speakers include:

John Carter Wood, Shani D’Cruze, Clive Emsley, Peter King,
James Sharpe, Bob Shoemaker, Garthine Walker, Martin Wiener

FACULTY OF ARTS & SOCIETY
SCHOOL OF CULTURAL STUDIES

Administrative enquiries to:
Pat Cook/ Jean Brownridge,
Email: cook.brownridge@leedsmet.ac.uk
Tel: 0113 812 3120

Academic enquiries to:
Dr Heather Shore
Email: h.shore@leedsmet.ac.uk
Tel: 0113 812 3361

Alternatively please visit the School of Cultural Studies website to download a booking form.